BOARD CHARTER

1 PURPOSE

Pengana Investment Management Limited (ACN 063 081 612, AFSL 219 462) ('Responsible Entity', or 'PIML') is a wholly owned subsidiary of Pengana Capital Group Limited (ACN 059 300 426 ) (ASX: PCG) ('Pengana' or 'PCG').

PIML is the responsible entity for the following registered managed investment schemes listed on the Australian Securities Exchange ('ASX'):

- Pengana Private Equity Trust (ASX: PE1) ('PE1'), and
- Pengana Global Private Credit Trust (ASX: PCX) ('PCX')

Collectively, the 'Listed Investment Trusts' or 'LITs'.

PIML is also the investment manager for Pengana International Equities Limited (ASX: PIA) ('PIA'), a listed investment company.

This Board Charter sets out the role, responsibilities, structure and processes of the Board of directors (Board) of PIML.

The purpose of this Charter is to:

- promote high standards of corporate governance;
- clarify the roles and responsibilities of the Board; and
- provide an overview of the structures and processes supporting the Board.

2 ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Board is primarily responsible for ensuring that both PIML and the LITs are properly managed and have appropriate corporate governance structures to:

- ensure the creation and protection of shareholder (in relation to PIML) and unitholder (in relation to the LITs) value; and
- recognise the legitimate interests of stakeholders (of both PIML and the LITs).

In performing its role, the Board aspires to excellence in governance standards.

2.1 PIML

The key responsibilities of the Board include:

- demonstrating leadership;
- monitoring and assessing the performance of PIML and ensuring that its actions are consistent with Pengana Group's values, purpose and strategic objectives;
- approving PIML's statement of values and code of conduct;
- appointing the chair;
- approving the appointment and replacement of the company secretary;
- overseeing management in its implementation of PIML's values, purpose and strategic objectives;
- overseeing the integrity of PIML's accounting and corporate reporting systems, including the

- external audit;
- satisfying itself that PIML has in place an appropriate risk management framework (for both financial and non-financial risks) and setting the risk appetite within which the board expects management to operate;
- satisfying itself that an appropriate framework exists for relevant information to be reported by management to the board;
- whenever required, challenging management and holding it to account;
- satisfying itself that PIML's Non-Executive Director remuneration policies are aligned with PIML's purpose, values, strategic objectives and risk appetite; and
- monitoring the effectiveness of PIML's governance practices

2.2 Listed investment company

The key responsibilities of the Board, in relation to listed investment companies of which PIML acts as investment manager for, include:

- Ensuring compliance with the Investment Management Agreement including that appropriate control, monitoring and reporting mechanisms are in place.
- Ensure that Shareholders and the market are kept fully informed with timely and relevant information regarding PIML's role as the Investment Manager.

2.3 Listed investment trusts

The key responsibilities of the Board, in relation to listed investment trusts of which PIML acts as responsible entity for, include:

- Monitoring the LITs's performance.
- Reviewing and overseeing the risk management framework, ensuring that the significant risks facing the LITs are identified, that appropriate control, monitoring and reporting mechanisms are in place and that risk is appropriately dealt with.
- Monitoring and appraising financial performance including the approval of annual and half year financial reports and liaising with the LITs' auditors.
- PIML is responsible for preparing the declaration pursuant to Section 295A of the Corporations Act. Accordingly, the Board of PIML will ensure that PIML has put in place sound systems of risk management and internal controls and ensure that the systems are operating effectively in all material respects in relation to financial reporting risks.
- Ensure that Unitholders and the market are kept fully informed with timely and relevant information which is in accordance with the continuous disclosure provisions outlined in PIML's Continuous Disclosure Policy.
- Monitoring and reviewing service providers.
- Ensuring compliance with the LITs' Constitution and with the continuous disclosure requirements of the Listing Rules and the Corporations Act.
- Communicating with and protecting the rights and interests of all Unitholders.

This Charter operates in conjunction with the Constitution and relevant Laws.

3 ROLE OF THE CHAIR

The Board will appoint one of its members to be the Chair in accordance with PIML's Constitution.

The Chair represents the Board to the unitholders of the LITs and communicates the Board's position.

The Chair is responsible for leading the Board. This includes:

- facilitating the effective contribution of all directors;
- promoting constructive and respectful relations between directors and between the board and the investment manager;
- approving board agendas; and
- ensuring that adequate time is available for discussion of all agenda items, including strategic issues.

If the Chair is not independent, the Board will appoint a lead independent Director.

4 ROLE OF THE LEAD INDEPENDENT DIRECTOR

In situations where it is deemed that the Chair is conflicted, the lead independent Director will, amongst other things:

- preside over meetings of Non-Executive Directors and, as appropriate, provide feedback to the Chair;
- serve as point of contact for Board Members to raise issues not readily addressable to the Chair by individual Board Members;
- act as a direct conduit to the Board for unitholders of the LITs, employees, the public and other stakeholders regarding matters not readily addressable to the Chair; and
- take the lead in ensuring that the Board carries out its responsibilities in circumstances where the Chair is incapacitated or otherwise unable to act.

5 ROLE AND DELEGATIONS

5.1 Relationship to the board of Pengana

To assist in discharging its responsibility for the overall governance and performance of the Pengana Group, the Board of Pengana Capital Group Limited ('Pengana Board') has adopted the following protocols with the boards of its key operating subsidiaries, including PIML:

- The Pengana Board receives regular updates from executives responsible for the operations of the key operating subsidiary
- The Pengana Board receives minutes and matters arising from each meeting of the boards of each of the key operating subsidiary

5.1.1 Appointment and removal of PIML directors

Appointment of directors to the boards and standing committees of the key operating subsidiaries are made subject to the approval of the Pengana Board.

Appointment of chairmen to the boards and standing committees of the key operating subsidiaries are made subject to the approval of the Pengana Board.

The Board of each key operating subsidiary must include at least one Pengana executive.

5.1.2 Appointment and removal of PIML directors

The Pengana Board approves the remuneration of non-executive directors of key operating subsidiaries.

5.2 Delegations

The Chief Executive Officer is responsible for PIML's management and operation. The Chief Executive Officer manages PIML in accordance with the strategy, plans, risk appetite and policies approved by the Pengana Board.

The senior executive team is responsible for implementing Pengana's strategic objectives and instilling and reinforcing its values, all while operating within the values, code of conduct, budget and risk appetite set by the Board.

The senior executive team is responsible for providing the Board with accurate, timely and clear information on PIML's operations to enable the Board to perform its responsibilities. This is not just limited to information about the financial performance of PIML, LITs and/or PIA, but also its compliance with material legal and regulatory requirements and any conduct that is materially inconsistent with the values or code of conduct of PIML. In particular, material breaches of PIML's code of conduct, material incidents under PIML's whistleblower policy and material breaches of PIML's anti-bribery and corruption policy to be reported to the Board or the relevant committee of the Board.

Any matters or transactions outside these delegations must be referred to the PIML Board for approval.

6 BOARD SIZE AND COMPOSITION

In accordance with PIML's Constitution, the Board shall be comprised four directors, at least two of whom are independent non-executive directors; one of whom must be the chair and have a casting vote.

Collectively, the Board must be comprised of members with expertise, experience and skill relevant to the business of PIML. The Board will regularly review the composition of the Board having regard to the optimum number and skill mix of Directors, subject to the limits imposed by PIML's Constitution and the terms served by existing Non-Executive Directors.

Directors will be appointed and removed in accordance with the Corporations Act and PIML's Constitution and subject to approval of the Pengana Board.

Non-executive Directors will be engaged through a letter of appointment.

7 ROLE OF DIRECTORS

Directors are expected to attend and participate in Board meetings. They are expected to review meeting materials before Board meetings. In addition, Directors are required to question, request information, raise any issue which is of concern to them and cast their vote on any resolution according to their own judgment.

Directors must keep Board information, discussions, deliberations and decisions that are not publicly known confidential.

Directors are required to comply with their common law and statutory duties when discharging their responsibilities as directors.

Directors are able to access any information they consider necessary to fulfil their responsibilities and to exercise independent judgement when making decisions. Directors also have access to senior executives and the auditors in order to seek explanations and information.

8 COMPANY SECRETARY

The Company Secretary is responsible for the co-ordination of all Board business, including agendas, board papers, minutes, communication with regulatory bodies, ASX and all statutory and other filings.

The Board will appoint at least one Company Secretary. Appointment and removal of a Company Secretary will be subject to approval of the Pengana Board.

All Directors shall have direct access to the Company Secretary.

9 BOARD MEETINGS

The Chair is responsible, in consultation with the Chief Executive Officer and the Company Secretary, for the conduct of all Board meetings. This includes being satisfied that the agendas are comprehensive, that all agenda items are appropriate and that recommendations fit within the broad strategic direction set by the Board.

Members of executive management are available to be contacted by Directors between meetings.

Non-executive Directors will regularly meet without Executive Directors or other management representatives present, including at the conclusion of each meeting.

10 DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE

The Board has adopted a definition of independence setting out the interests and relationships to be considered by the Board in assessing the independence of each Director.

The Board assesses independence of Directors upon appointment and annually through an attestation by each Director.

The Board collectively, and each Director individually, has the right (in connection with their duties and responsibilities) to seek independent professional advice at PIML's expense, subject to the approval of the Chair, or in the Chair's absence, the Board. The Board will review the estimated costs for reasonableness but will not impede the seeking of advice, whenever Directors, especially non-executive Directors, consider such advice necessary for them to discharge their responsibilities as Directors.

11 ETHICAL STANDARDS

Board members are expected to observe the highest standards of ethical behaviour.

Pengana has developed a Code of Conduct that outlines the standards of personal and corporate behaviour that is required of Directors, Officers and employees of the Pengana Group.

Directors are expected to act lawfully, in a professional manner and to observe high standards of personal integrity and display honesty and objectivity in their dealings.

12 CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Directors are expected to be alert to and avoid any action, position or interest that conflicts with an interest of PIML or gives the appearance of a conflict. In particular, Directors must:

- disclose to the Board any actual or potential conflicts of interest that may exist as soon as the situation arises;
- take necessary and reasonable steps to resolve or avoid any actual or potential conflict of interest, and
- comply with all relevant Laws in relation to disclosing interests and restrictions on participation and voting.

A Director that has a material personal interest in a matter that relates to the affairs of the Pengana Group must give the other Directors notice of such interest.

The Company Secretary will maintain a register of dealings in securities and declarations of interest by Directors and report them to the Board as necessary.

Pengana has developed a Conflicts of Interest Policy that procedures for the identification, assessment, evaluation and, if required, controlling of conflicts of interest.
